Numb. 149.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Thurſday, September 23. to Thurſday, September 30. 1731.

ROME, June 18.

WHEN General Schulenburgh had ſome Days ago an Audience of the Pope, his Holineſs would not offer him his Toe to kiſs, becauſe the General is a Proteſtant, but gave him his Hand. The old Soldier, not conſidering that his Holineſs was then laid up of the Gout, took hold of his Hand, and gave it ſuch a hearty Gripe, that he made the old Pontiff cry out. Hereupon all the Officers of the Antichamber came running into the Room; but when they underſtood the Occaſion, they all ſeem'd very well ſatisfy'd, except the General, who could not forgive himſelf, though the Pope had, but rack'd his Invention to make Excuſes to him.

Paris, June 19. We have received Advice from Miſſiſippi, that M. du Perrier, Governor of that Country, having received from France a ſmall Reinforcement of Troops, Ammunitions of War, Pieces of Cannon, and ſome Mortars, began again the Purſuit of the Natchez Indians, or Savages, who ſome time ago maſſacred the French at New Orleans. Upon the Approach of M. Perrier, they retired into a Fort, which they had built and well fenced with Earth, wherein they believed themſelves to be ſafe. The Cannon indeed did them little Damage, but the Mortars being uſed, made ſuch terrible Havock in the Fort, that the Savages were reduced to great Extremity, and ſurrendred at Diſcretion, deſiring only the Lives of their Wives and Children; ſaying, that as to themſelves they had deſerved Death for their Cruelties: However, their Lives were granted them, but they were tranſported to St. Domingo, to labour there.

Lisbon, June 19. We had this Day an Auto da Fe, or Act of Faith; four Men and eight Women are to be burnt, alſo one of each Sex in Effigy, who died in the Inquiſition, one of them aged 13 and the other 14.

Dublin, June 19. It has been obſerved, that the Roman Catholicks of Ireland have ſpent many Days in Faſting and Prayer on ſome extraordinary Occaſion.

Hague, June 22. They write from Luxemburg, that the French go on vigorouſly with the new Works at Metz, where 14 Regiments of Foot are incamped without, and 14 in the Town, the Pay of each Soldier being 15 Sols per Day.

Leghorn, June 22. 'Tis confirm'd from Agueziras, that the Lines drawn by the Spaniards before Gibraltar, from Sea to Sea, are finiſh'd, with the Cover'd Way; that they were now at work upon the Counterſcarp; that the three Forts are likewiſe built, whereof that on the weſtern ſide commands the Bay before the Town, and that in the Center can reach both the Town and the Shipping; that, in fine, this Fortification will ſo block up the Port, that Ships will be obliged to anchor in the Straits, at conſiderable Diſtance both from the Town and the Port.

Paris, June 25. They write from Peronne, that Abundance of People are ſwept off there by a Diſtemper they call the Sweating Sickneſs. And from Heſden in Artois, that above fifty Houſes have been conſumed there by Fire.

Cologn, June 29. They write from Vienna, that the Emperor is very ſecure of the King of Poland's Acceſſion to the new Treaty, and that he does not doubt of the Czarina's alſo.

Milan, June 30. 'Tis agreed that 400 Imperialiſts only ſhall march at preſent for the ſervice of the Republick of Genoa into the Iſland of Corſica; but our Regency farther inſiſts, on the part of the Emperor, that the like Number of other Troops ſhall be admitted into the States of Genoa, to be ready to paſs over to their Aſſiſtance, in caſe the firſt Detachment prove inſufficient to reduce the Rebels, in order to ſupport the Honour of the Imperial Forces.

Leghorn, June 30. They write from Corſica, that the Rebels ſtraiten Baſtia more and more, and have erected two Batteries which have ſuch a Command of the Harbour, that hardly a Ship dares go in or out; and that they receive Supplies of Artillery and Ammunition from time to time by foreign Ships. The Republick of Genoa having complained to the Great Duke that great Quantities were ſent from from hence; they were answer'd, that there was no stopping of Trade in a Free Port. The Genoese have forbid the Crews of Ships coming from Corsica, to give any Account of the State of Affairs there, upon Pain of being sent to the Galleys. It is apprehended, that before the Magazines and other Provisions are ready for the Imperial Auxiliaries, the Time for taking the Field will be past. We have a Report, that an English Merchant-Ship, bound from Algiers to London, was lately taken by the Spanish Men of War in the Mediterranean.

LONDON, June 19. The Beginning of next Week, the Hon. Walter Chetwood, Esq; Governor of Barbados, will take his Leave of His Majesty, and all the Royal Family; he being about to embark for his Government.

On Thursday came certain Account of the Death of the Duke of Wharton, in the Convent of Monks call'd Poblet.

June 22. Benjamin Loder of Lyford, near Wanrage in the County of Berks, Yeoman, has a Son, born the 10th of March 1725, (as appears by a Certificate sign'd by the Minister and Church-Wardens of the Parish, and by several Gentlemen of the County,) who to the Surprize of all that see him, is not only almost five Foot high, but his Arms, Legs, and other Parts are proportionable; that is, as large as most common Men. His Strength also is wonderful, that he with ease carries 13 Score, takes up 100 weight with one Hand, and half a Hundred with one Finger. Being thus a Prodigy in Nature, his Father has been persuaded by those that saw him, to endeavour to make a Provision for him, by shewing him to the Curious; and he is now to be seen at Reading in Berkshire.

June 24. We are informed, that his Majesty hath been pleased, in Consideration of the very great Losses by the late Fires, to bestow the Sum of 1000 l. on the poor Sufferers at Tiverton, and the like Sum of 1000 l. on those at Blandford; that for Tiverton to be distributed at the Discretion of Sir William Yonge, Recorder of the said Town; and that for Blandford, by George Dodington, Esq; who lives in that Neighbourhood.

June 26. The East India Company by their Ships from China, have Advice, that the Prince George, belonging to the English Gentlemen in Bengal, was lost in Juncun Bay, 45 Leagues to the westward of Canton, and that the Commander, Mates, European Sailors, and Lascars, to the Number of 58 Persons, were drowned; the Supercargoes, Purser, two of the Mates, and 42 Seamen were saved. Her Cargo, which amounted to 60,000 l. was all lost, except five Chests of Treasure, and a small Quantity of Tin.

June 29. The Spaniards continue obstructing all Vessels of their Nation carrying Provisions, &c. to Gibraltar, having lately hang'd the Master of a Bark, which they took in the Bay going to Gibraltar.

July 3. On Tuesday at the Court of Hustings at Guild Hall, Samuel Russel, Esq; was declared duly elected one of the Sheriffs of this City and County of Middlesex for the Year ensuing: Thomas Pindar, Esq; the other Sheriff, who was declared on Thursday last Week, appear'd in the Court of Aldermen, and signed Bonds for serving the said Office; and Mr. Russel is cited for that purpose to appear in the said Court on Tuesday next. The Court of Aldermen resolved to recommend to the Inhabitants of their respective Wards a voluntary Contribution for the Relief of the unhappy sufferers by the late Fires at Blandford, Tiverton, and Ramsey; for which End they proposed that each Alderman should take his Deputy and Common Council-men to his Assistance.

The Letters from Spain by Wednesday's French Mail, give fresh Proof of the Distress the Merchants are reduced to for want of their Treasure, which was brought to Cadiz by the last Flota above nine Months ago, and yet detain'd from them, without any immediate prospect of its being deliver'd: A House at Madrid has stopt Payment for about 200,000 Pieces of Eight; and a few Days ago we had Advice of an ancient House at Genoua being gone off for the like Sum.

From Lisbon we learn, that the British Factory was so insulted by the Populace, on Account of the Quarrels which have happen'd, that they were applying to the Envoy, for him to intercede with his Portugueze Majesty in their Behalf.

A Grant is passing the Seals for Mr. Booth, Mr. Wilks, and Mr. Cibber, to erect and form Companies for acting Tragedies, Comedies, Operas, &c. for the Term of 21 Years.

His Grace the Duke of Wharton having made his Will some time ago, and left it in the Hands of a Nobleman here, it was open'd a few Days since; and we hear his Grace has appointed the Earl of Orrery, Sir Christopher Musgrave, Bart. and Charles Cæsar, Esq; to be his Executors; and has left his Dutchess 1200 l. per Annum for her Life, or 10,000 l. in money, which she shall chuse; and order'd all his Debts to be paid, and the Residue of his Estate (which is reckon'd about 50,000 l.) to be divided among the Executors.

July 8. Yesterday the Grand Jury for the County of Middlesex delivered in to the Court of King's Bench at Westminster, a Presentment against An Answer to one part of a late infamous Libel, &c. The Fall of Mortimer, Robin's Reign, Robin's Game or Seven is the Main, The Chelsea Monarch or Money rules all, The Country Journal or the Craftsman, and Fog's Weekly Journal, in the usual Terms of false, infamous, scandalous, seditious and treasonable Libels. Several of the Presenters have the honour to be Middlesex Justices.

Yesterday Morning died the Countess Dowager of Warwick and Holland. She was Daughter to Sir Thomas Middleton of Chirk Castle in the County of Denbigh, Bart. and Widow Widow of the late Mr. Secretary Addiſon.

July 12. On Saturday the Hon. Cha. Wager, Vice-Admiral of the Red, was promoted to be Admiral of the blue Squadron. The ſame Day the Lords of the Admiralty were pleaſed to order Sir Geo. Walton to be Admiral under the Hon. Sir Cha. Wager in his Fleet.

The Sufferers by the late great Fires at Tiverton, Blandford, the Devizes, &c. receive abundance of Charity. Among others, his Grace the Duke of Queensbury hath ſent 100 Guineas to be diſtributed to the poor Sufferers at the Devizes. Her Grace the Dutcheſs Dowager of Marlborough hath given 100l. towards the Relief of the poor Sufferers at Blandford. The Society of New-Inn have collected upwards of 100 l. for the ſufferers at Blandford and Tiverton.

Yeſterday Morning George Fox, Eſq; was married to Miſs Harriot Benſon, only Daughter and Heireſs of Rob. L. Bingley deceaſed, a Fortune of 100000 l.

The Counteſs Dowager of Warwick did by her laſt Will bequeath 7000 l. to the only Daughter of the Earl of Warwick, in caſe Miſs Charlotte Addiſon ſhall die without Iſſue.

The Duke of Argyle's Regiment of Horſe is on their March from the North, and this Morning 3 Troops of the ſame paſſed thro' this City for the County of Kent.

From the Daily Journal, July 17. Laſt Year the Aſſembly of New-England offered 3000l. their Currency, (which is not 1000 l. ſterling) to Governor Belcher, for one Year's Salary, which was then refuſed: But we are credibly inform'd, that if they renew that Offer, with a Promiſe of a like Vote being paſſed by them the firſt Meeting on Buſineſs in every May Seſſion, during his continuing their Governor, the ſame will be accepted of, and put an end to the Differences which have ſo long ſubſiſted between the Governors of that Province, and the Inhabitants.

To Mr. POPE, on his being perſonally abuſed.

Thy Wit in vain the envenom'd Critic gnaws,
The poliſh'd metal breaks the Serpent's Jaws;
Pain'd and enrag'd it on thy Perſon flies,
But ſtrait drops off, and feebly hiſſing dies.
Impartial Heav'n, which ne'er thought fit to join
A beauteous Form to ſuch bright Wit as thine,
Careleſs to grace the frail corporeal Part,
Has on thy Soul exerted double Art.

By the Poſt laſt Night we had the following Advices.

Vienna, July 25. 'Tis confirm'd that a new Treaty was ſign'd here on the 22d Inſtant, between the Emperor, Spain and Great Britain, in confirmation of former Treaties, and ſent to their reſpective Courts for their Ratification. The Duke of Liria and Mr. Robinſon confer often with the Miniſters of Sardinia and Tuſcany; 'tis ſaid the latter has conſented to the Introduction of Spaniſh Troops into Italy, & the former appears diſpos'd to accede to the ſaid Treaty.

Paris, July 30. 'Tis now aſſur'd that the Reform of the King's Troops will not take place; 'tis rather believ'd they will ſhortly be augmented, ſince our laſt Advices from Vienna aſſure us that they continue there raiſing Recruits with great Diligence, and have concluded a new Treaty with Spain and Great Britain.

Hague, Aug. 3. The States of Holland and Weſt Friſeland continue their Deliberations upon the preſent poſture of the publick Affairs, and particularly concerning their Acceſſion to the laſt Vienna Treaty, which we are told is at hand, and daily expected to be made publick.

Aug. 5. Letters from Geneva, of the 28th paſt, mention a current Report there, that the Court of France has made advantageous Propoſals to that of Sardinia, to engage it in a ſeparate Alliance.

London, July 30. We hear that an Expreſs from Mr Coleman, his Majeſty's Miniſter at Florence, has brought an Account of the delivery of the Dutcheſs Dowager of Parma of a Prince.

Orders are ſent to the Officers commanding the Battalion of Guards at Rocheſter, to march forthwith to Deal.

Sir Charles Wager's Fleet was met on Thurſday the 22d Inſtant, ſixty Leagues to the Weſtward of Scilly.

NEW-YORK, Septemb. 27.

The Small Pox, Flux and Fever, prevail very much in this City, and many Children die of the ſaid Diſtempers, as well as grown Perſons; and the country People are afraid to come to Town, which makes the Markets thin, Proviſions dear, and deadens all Trade; and it goes very hard with the Poor, inſomuch that a charitable Contribution for them is promoted, and one Gentleman has given Twenty Piſtoles, another Twenty Pounds towards their Relief; and other Charities are thrown in according to the Circumſtances of the Benefactors.
